Real Women...Real Life...Real Encounters.

Krishauna Hines-Gaither

We invite women in the Winston-Salem area to hear the testimony of Krishauna Hines-Gaither as she shares how the Lord used education to unlock many of her God-given gifts and awaken her to the world around her. From an unmotivated high school student to Professor of the Year at Salem College (2008), hear how Krishauna's life was transformed through education and the platform she now has to transform the lives of her students through education.
