Jesus Never Fails

By Mike Riley

Our son Brian is an avid football fan, his favorite team being the Dallas Cowboys. The interesting thing about being a Cowboy fan is that the team has a way of letting folks down. While marching down to the goal line, they’ve been known to fumble the football at the one-foot line, missing an opportunity to score a touchdown. And while they often have shown great promise at the beginning of a season, they have disappointed their loyal fans at the end of a season.

Thankfully, our God does not disappoint like the Dallas Cowboys! Not only can we count on Him in any situation or circumstance, He will not disappoint us in the end, for He always keeps His promises (Joshua 21:43-45; Joshua 23:14), and His Word provides comfort, hope, and wisdom that never fails.

When King Solomon dedicated the temple, he attested to the fact that God had not let His people down. He said:

“Blessed be the Lord, who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. There has not failed one word of all His good promise” (1 Kings 8:56).

Those words still ring true today as they did centuries ago. And better yet, we are heirs of the greatest fulfilled promise of all time — Jesus, our Savior (Gal. 4:4-5; cf. Romans 8:14-17; Gal. 3:28-29). The longer we study Him and His life, the more compelling He becomes (Romans 15:1-7).

So if we are looking for someone who won't disappoint us, we don't have to look any further than Jesus, because He never fails! (Romans 15:8; 2 Corinthians 1:19-20).

Is There A Minimum?

By Ron Boatwright

Many people want to know what the bare minimum is they can get by with in their lives. Also some Christians want to do the minimum in their spiritual lives. But does God allow a bare minimum? Jesus says, “And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength” (Mark 12:30). If we really love God, we will want to do all we can.

Some may ask, “How many times a week do I have to go to church?”, or “How much do I have to give?”, or “How much do I have to do?” This is the wrong attitude. Jesus says, “So likewise you, when you have done all those things which you are commanded, say, ‘We are unprofitable servants. We have done what was our duty to do’” (Luke 17:10). If we try to get by with the bare minimum in our spiritual lives, we will most likely be horribly surprised on Judgment Day when we hear the Lord say, “Depart from Me” because we have not faithfully done the will of the “Father in heaven” (Matthew 7:21-23). It will be too late then. It will be final. Can we do too much for the Lord? No!

We must do the most we can for the Lord. We must, “be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Corinthians 15:58). Our number one priority in this life must be to go to Heaven when this life is over. God “is a rewarder of those, who diligently seek Him” (Hebrews 11:6). But we must diligently seek God if we expect to receive the reward of Heaven. The Bible says, “Therefore, brethren, be even more diligent to make your call and election sure” (2 Peter 1:10). But we must be “looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God” (Hebrews 12:15). We can definitely fall from the grace of God even though Satan says we can't.

What about those who are lukewarm? Jesus says, “So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth” (Revelation 3:16). Those who are lukewarm make Jesus sick at His stomach. But Jesus promises, “Be faithful until death and I will give you the crown of life” (Revelation 2:10). Let's make sure we go to Heaven. Nothing is as important.
