

Preschool Comparison Form

Take a look at these top 18 questions you should ask when interviewing potential daycare providers. NOTICE: We are the only Provider that does background checks on those picking up the kids.

(if there is a * after the question, the state mandates they must have this)

	RELKids	Company X	Company Z
Is your staff trained in first aid and CPR?*	Yes
Do you conduct background checks on all your employees?*	Yes, and will not work until we have it done.
What type of child development training do you require, if any?*	Must have minimum state required and working on AA degree
Is your facility licensed?*	Yes both FBI and FDLE checked
We are a Husband & Wife team
Are mats included? 	Yes, at no extra fee
Do you have car seats for the children? 	Yes, at no extra fee
Is your facility accredited and/or have participated in a quality improvement program?	Alumni of Masters Teachers program
What is the student to teacher ratio?*	0 mos – 5 year a max of 1:6 (with max of 1 infant or 1 year old child)
Centers: 0-11 mos. 1:4 1 year 1:6 2 year 1:11 3 year 1:15 4 year 1:20 5 yr & older 1:25 VPK 1:10 or 2:18	We may expand to a center in the future, our ratio would be as follows: 0-11 mos. 1:3 1 year - 3 year 1:6 4 year 5 yr & up 1:10
Homes: 0-11 mos. 1:4 1 year – 5 year 1:6 0 mos – 5 year 1:6 (3 infants) 1 year – 12 year 1:10 (5 school aged)

Classroom:

	RELKids	Company X	Company Z
How many children does your facility serve?	Currently 3 with a max of 6

What is the specific breakdown of age ranges?	We have ages 1 1/2 – 3 years old
Do you offer uniforms or have a dress code policy? 	Yes, We give you 2 shirts at no extra cost for our students. We ask parents to respect our policy for the younger children.
What is your educational philosophy?	We have a Flexible structured curriculum that is guided by the child's interest, which open the door to more learning. Staff is always expected to increase their knowledge.
What is your discipline policy?	We redirect the unwanted behavior
What is a typical day like for the children?	Daytime is academic class time, meals, nap afternoon enrichment actives, free play, outdoor activity and more reading
Do you offer enrichment programs and if so how much more?	Yes we do - included in the preschool tuition. The average is $160/month if you had to pay for the classes separately.

Health: (*some places does not allow,  some places charge extra fees)

	RELKids	Company X	Company Z
What is your sick child policy?*	Must stay home
What is your diapering policy? (use bleach on surface in between diaper changes, wash hands, use gloves). Ask teachers to show you the steps - not all employees does this.*	We sanitize the area in between changes, change gloves, wash hands and sanitize after done diaper changes. We have hand washing signs in bathroom and also diapering signs at diapering areas.
What types of snacks and/or meals do you serve? /	All meals are homemade and USDA (WIC) approved. We may have take out treats sometimes.

What opportunities are available for indoor/outdoor play?	We have outdoor play every day weather permitting, if not we have some of the outside equipment inside to offer gross motor activities inside.
What is your policy about administering medicine? *	Sorry, we do not administer medications. Other arrangements must be made by the parents.
What is your policy about potty-training? 	We will potty train only when parents begin at home. It is important we all work together and at no extra fee.

- Some or all of these services are offered at certain levels – Silver and Gold.

Notes (other things you think are important or may want to ask):