

TULSA PUBLIC SCHOOLS

EISENHOWER INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

December 20, 2005

To Whom It May Concern:

It has been our pleasure to host Stacy Nyikos at Eisenhower International School on two separate occasions. She came to share her new picture book, Squirt, with our first grade students.

Stacy is an energetic presenter and she is a delight to host. She holds the children's attention as she describes her work. She also encourages the students to write and to illustrate on their own.

We appreciate so much the effort Stacy is making to allow Tulsa students to become acquainted with a "real" author and illustrator and to encourage their creativity. Perhaps her presentations will make a difference in the life of a budding author/illustrator.

Sincerely,

Barbara McCrary
Library Media Specialist
Eisenhower International School