Baptist Update

Baptist is now working on the wall surrounding the hotel property. They will be upgrading and painting it in the coming months. As part of being a good neighbor, they are even painting our side of the wall in the color chosen by the association!

Cash

Cash is NEVER accepted in our office for ANY reason. Also, Monthly assessments must be submitted to Executive National Bank directly.

Did you know?

Failure to register a pet results in an automatic invitation to the grievance committee. Fines are $100/pet/day. Also, failure to pick up after your pet results in a fine of $100 plus the cost of testing! Make sure your pet is wearing their tag at all times!

Random Fun

The largest squash on record belong to Joel Jarvis. His prize winner weighed 1486.6 pounds. Think about how much butternut squash soup could be made with that!

Important Dates

10/14 - Grievance Meeting 6pm

10/21 - Board Meeting 7pm

10/30 - Halloween Happy Hour 7pm

Halloween Happy Hour

Please join your fellow residents for our Halloween Happy Hour on Thursday, October 30th at 7pm in the Clubhouse. Light appetizers and cocktails will be provided. And since it is Halloween, we encourage you to dress up! A special thanks to Lani and Kim of the social committee for organizing this great social event! See you there!

Pet Area and Dog DNA Update

As you may have noticed, we have installed extra dog stations in our pet area. With the addition of the dog stations and our pet DNA testing, we have seen a DRAMATIC decrease in poo in our community over the last few months. Remember, if you see anyone not picking up after their pet, please report it to the office immediately.
