

AL-ZAHRAA WEEKEND SCHOOL RULES

The purpose of rules in the daily life is to PREVENT any accidents or unfavorable situations from occurring. Every place has a code of rules and they must be followed by all members, at all times to avoid conflict. Take a look at the street rules: Everyone must follow traffic light rules by stopping at a red light, slowing down on yellow and passing on green. There are no excuses not to follow these rules. They must be followed whether you are in a rush and whether you like them or not, in order to prevent accidents from happening. Similarly, school rules are set for the benefit of all of us. It is only when all of us follow rules that we will set a peaceful environment conducive to learning and promoting Islamic behavior.
