

Presentation Rubric

Group names: _____

For each area of evaluation, circle the description which best describes the group's work.

Area for Evaluation	5 points	4 points	3 points	1 point
Oral Presentation	Each member of the team speaks clearly and the argument includes all main points from planning guide. Flows with the visual and powerpoint presentations. Recommendations for health of the company are presented.	Each member of the team speaks and most parts of the argument are addressed. Argument is persuasive. Recommendations for health of the company are presented.	Most members speak and most parts of the argument are addressed. Argument is somewhat persuasive. Some recommendations for health of the company are presented.	Some members speak and some parts of the argument are addressed. Argument is not persuasive. Recommendations for health of the company are not presented.
Business Letter	Letter has correct grammar and spelling and is written in business form. Includes all main points from planning guide.	Letter is convincing and written in business form. Includes main points from planning guide.	Letter is somewhat convincing and written somewhat in business form.	Letter is not convincing and not written in business form.
Visual Project	Accurately and creatively depicts the body system and supports the presentation.	Accurately depicts the body system.	Some parts of the body system are missing.	Body system depiction is inaccurate.
Power Point	Uses appropriate powerpoint etiquette to include each point from the planning guide. Matched the oral presentation.	Included most points from planning guide and matched the oral presentation.	Includes some of the points from the planning guide and did not match the presentation.	Did not address the points from the planning guide and did not match the oral presentation.