

BROOKIE NEWS

<<< Illustration “One Last Look - Brook Trout” courtesy of Bob White of Whitefish Studio

Newsletter of The Central Wisconsin Chapter of Trout Unlimited (CWTU)

October 2014

Prez Sez

The main chapter activity for October was the banquet held October 4 at the WWII Memorial Building in Wautoma. It is perhaps my biased observation, but most people seemed to really enjoy the dinner, raffles, and auctions. Overall it was a good and very profitable party. It was the second most profitable banquet in at least the last six years, exceeded only by the extraordinary profits of 2013. This was in spite of a lower turnout. THANK YOU all who attended our CWTU’s November 11 program will feature author, biologist, and WDNR official Michael Miller presenting a program on stream ecology. Miller is the co-author of the newly released Field Guide to Wisconsin Streams. The program will be held at the Fin ‘N Feather, will begin at 6:30 pm, and the CWTU meeting will start at 7:30 pm. Note---this is switch from our normal agenda. River Keepers, CWTU members, and interested citizens are invited to meet at 5:15 pm to share a meal together.

most important fund raiser of the year. You have really helped the chapter. Thank you to our banquet co-chairs, Jeff Wegand and and Laura Tucker for making it work. If you were not able to attend but still would like to make a donation, contact our Treasurer, Mike Schaefer. His information is in the contact section of the chapter website.

John Tucker

Highlights from the CWTU Annual Conservation Banquet
Photos courtesy of John Gremmer

MC Tracy Moran enjoys a moment with the crowd

Dan Harmon III presents the prestigious Brookie award to Dick Krause

Bob and Deb Jozwowski receive the River Keepers of the Year award

Bob Haase with Tiffany Wegand and friend helping with the banquet

Banquet Chair Jeff Wegand congratulates Alistair Stuart upon winning the Stream Workdays award

CWTU President John Tucker addresses the Banquet crowd

River Keepers News

Micheal A. Miller to speak at November 11 final River Keeper meal/meeting/program of 2014.

All CWTU River Keepers are encouraged to attend our 6:30 pm, November 11 program/meeting at the Fin 'N Feather in Winneconne. River Keepers are also invited and encouraged to arrive at 5:15 to share a meal together. This is a good time to discuss summer monitoring experiences.

The program will feature author, biologist, and WDNR official Michael Miller presenting a program on stream ecology. Miller is the co-author of the newly released Field Guide to Wisconsin Streams. For more information call John Gremmer at 920-582-7802 or eMail at jgremmer@charter.net/.

Brookie News Articles and Features

Members and friends of CWTU are encouraged to submit articles, notices, and photos for publication in the Brookie News. Contact the editor at Seligmand@gmail.com.

Current CWTU Officers and Board Members are listed elsewhere on the CWTU.org Website