Christians Will Not Retreat

By Mike Riley

When the Spanish explorer, Cortez landed at Vera Cruz in 1519 to begin his conquest of Mexico with a small force of 700 men, he purposely set fire to his fleet of eleven ships. His men on the shore watched their only means of retreat sinking to the bottom of the Gulf of Mexico. With no means of retreat, there was only one direction in which to move, forward into the Mexican interior to meet whatever might come their way.

To be a disciple of the Lord, we also must purposely destroy all avenues of retreat. We must resolve that whatever price is required for being His follower, we will gladly pay.

As Christians, we have become citizens of the kingdom of God (Ephesians 2:19), and we will not retreat back to the world (Luke 9:62; cf. Genesis 19:23-26; Luke 17:28-32).

Building Up The Body Written By: Dave Rogers

We know the church is Christ's body; Colossians 1:18 tells us so. The word of God's grace is able to "build [us] up" as members of that body (Acts 20:32). That same word also tells us that we must contribute to that "building up" process as well (Jude 20)!

"Building up" is from a compound Greek word that means "to build upon, to promote growth in Christian [traits]." The bible provides the material, but WE must provide the labor! All Christians are members of the body (1 Corinthians 12:27), and each has a work to do in it (verses 15-18). We don't all do the same work, but each must do his/her "part" for the body to be healthy and strong! Therefore, we need to give attention to building up the body.

You will become stronger and healthier in spirit when you:

• Take in a well-balanced diet of God's word in your personal study. We all have favorite passages and Bible topics on which to meditate: These give us comfort and security in our spiritual lives, but we need the "balance" of all of God's word (Acts 20:27) to be truly "well-equipped" for His good works (2 Timothy 3:17).

• Exercise your senses to distinguish between good and evil, Hebrews 5:14. Becoming familiar and well-nourished in God's word is a truly challenging aim. The fact that even the apostles, after receiving inspiration, continued learning, shows how high this goal is. It is one thing to consume good, nutritious spiritual "food" (1 Timothy 4:6), and something else altogether to grow strong through the exercising of our senses! All the Bible knowledge we gain cannot save us if we don't USE it: The "sword of the Spirit" is to "...discern the thoughts and intents of the heart" (Hebrews 4:12), but it does us very little good until we apply it in our lives! Jesus says we should live so that our lives broadcast the light of His word in this sin-darkened world, Matthew 5:16 (and Philippians 2:15). We must learn and practice what we have learned. Jesus condemned as hypocrites those who "said and did not," Matthew 23:3.

• Sacrifice worldly attachments for the strength and fellowship of the saints, Romans 12:10-13. Our world teems with choices; they often serve the devil by distracting us from eternal life with God. When we are unsatisfied with what we have, and mistake wanting for needing, we fall into the vicious snare of materialism. Jesus said "Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth" (Luke 12:15). God doesn't measure us by how much we have, but by how much we do with what He has given us (Matthew 25:28).

Brethren, we simply must get away from worldly values, and help each other get to heaven! NO school activity, job, social organization, or civic activity offers as much in return; no house, car or clothing begins to compare; not even a friendship is as important as helping fellow Christians get to heaven.

Building up the body requires us to reevaluate, reorganize, re-prioritize our lives so that God's kingdom ALWAYS gets first place! Love for God, for the lost, and for our Savior's body must support and undergird all that we do in our lives: Love is the motive that brought Jesus into the world (John 3:16) and what held Him to the cross (John 15:13), and He is the Pattern we must follow (1 Peter 2:21-24).

Now, are you an asset or a detriment to the body here?
