We, the members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, believing the Bible to be God's inspired and inerrant Word, acknowledging that Jesus Christ is Lord, and affirming that we are saved by Grace through faith in Him alone, offer the following as our statement of mission:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit and loving our neighbors as ourselves, we, as ambassadors for Christ, must strive to make disciples of all nations; Using the gifts the Lord has given to each of us, we must help the saints to grow in unity of faith through regular worship attendance, the partaking of the Sacraments, the study of God's Word, and by ministering to the spiritual needs of others; we will persevere in prayer and thanksgiving for all the opportunities and blessings which God places before us.

Readings from Holy Scripture

Old Testament Genesis 2:7-17

Psalm Psalm 33:1-11 (antiphon vs 6)

⁶By the word of the LORD the heavens were made,
and by the breath of his mouth all their host.

¹Shout for joy in the LORD, O you righteous!
Praise befits the upright.

²Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre;
make melody to him with the harp of ten strings!

³Sing to him a new song;
play skillfully on the strings, with loud shouts.

⁴For the word of the LORD is upright,
and all his work is done in faithfulness.

⁵He loves righteousness and justice;
the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD.

⁶By the word of the LORD the heavens were made,
and by the breath of his mouth all their host.

⁷He gathers the waters of the sea as a heap;
he puts the deeps in storehouses.

⁸Let all the earth fear the LORD;
let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him!

⁹For he spoke, and it came to be;
he commanded, and it stood firm.

¹⁰The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing;
he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

¹¹The counsel of the LORD stands forever,
the plans of his heart to all generations.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

⁶By the word of the LORD the heavens were made,
and by the breath of his mouth all their host.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,

He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life ☩ everlasting. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

☩ Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As The Head Of The Family Should Teach It In A Simple Way To His Household

The Sixth Petition

And lead us not into temptation.

Lead us not into temptation.

What does this mean?

God tempts no one. We pray in this petition that God would guard and keep us so that the devil, the world, and our sinful nature may not deceive us or mislead us into false belief, despair, and other great shame and vice. Although we are attacked by these things, we pray that we may finally overcome them and win the victory.

Collect of the Day

L O God, whose never-failing providence orders all things both in heaven and earth, we humbly implore You to put away from us all hurtful things and to give us those things that are profitable for us; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Collect for the Word

L Blessed Lord, You have caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning. Grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn, and take them to heart that, by the patience and comfort of Your holy Word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Morning Prayer

C I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

The phrase “resurrection of the flesh, however, is also not good German. For when we hear the Fleisch we think no farther than the butcher shop. In proper German we would say “resurrection of the body.” However, this is not of great importance, as long as the words are rightly understood.

This, then, is the article that must always remain in force. For creation is now behind us, and redemption has also taken place, but the Holy Spirit continues his work without ceasing until the Last day, and for this purpose he has appointed a community on earth, through which he speaks and does all his work. For he has not yet gathered together all of this Christian community, nor has he completed the granting of forgiveness. Therefore we believe in him who daily brings us into this community through the Word, and imparts, increases, and strengthens faith through the same Word and the forgiveness of sins. Then when his work has been finished and we abide in it, having died to the world and all misfortune, he will finally make us perfectly and eternally holy. Now we wait in faith for this to be accomplished through the Word.

Pastor, what reasons did the ancients give for observing these hours of prayer?

They were regarded as commemorative of important events in the life and passion of our Lord, and in the lives of the Apostles.

The Apostolic Constitutions (A.D. 350) mention the hours as follows; "Ye shall make prayer in the morning, giving thanks, because the lord hath enlightened you, removing the night, and bringing the day; at the third hour, because the lord then received sentence from Pilate; at the sixth, because He was crucified; at the ninth, because all things were shaken when the Lord was crucified, trembling at the audacity of the impious Jews, not enduring that the Lord should be insulted; at evening labor; at cock-crowing, because that hour gives glad tidings that the day is dawning in which to work the works of light."

Another theory beautifully connects them with the acts of our Lord in His passion as follows:

Evensong with His Institution of the Eucharist, and washing the disciples' feet, and going out to Gethsemane; Compline with His agony and bloody sweat; Matins with His appearance before Caiaphas; Prime and Tierce, with that in the presence of Pilate; Tierce also with His scourging, crown of thorns, and the seven words, and crucifixion; Nones, with His dismissal of His spirit, descent into hell and rout of satan; Vespers with His deposition from the cross and entombment; Compline with the setting of the watch; Matins with His resurrection.
