Announcements

Don’t forget to order your Christmas Poinsettias. Today, November 13th is the last day for orders. There are order forms in the Narthex on the table nearest the Guest Sign-in.

To our visitors and guests:

The Lord’s Supper is celebrated at Good Shepherd in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God’s Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. You may also come up to the rail and receive a baptismal blessing. Signify this by crossing your hands over your chest. If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to Pastor.

When the candles are lit for the Mass, the ones closest to the center are lit first, moving outward from there. This is to signify that the source of our life and salvation comes from the altar. The altar not only signifies the sacrifice of Christ for our sins, but is also the place from which the Holy Sacrament is given. Christ, the light of the world, is truly given to us, in the Holy Sacrament, from the altar. Therefore the light of the world truly shines forth from the altar. The lighting of candles outward from the altar (the topmost candle being also the innermost candle, and so forth) signifies this truth. Light goes forth from the altar. At the close of the service, the candles are extinguished in reverse order, as a further signification of this: the light returns to the altar whence it came, that we might be reminded that it will come forth from there again and again, to the end of the world.

We, the members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, believing the Bible to be God's inspired and inerrant Word, acknowledging that Jesus Christ is Lord, and affirming that we are saved by Grace through faith in Him alone, offer the following as our statement of mission:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit and loving our neighbors as ourselves, we, as ambassadors for Christ, must strive to make disciples of all nations; Using the gifts the Lord has given to each of us, we must help the saints to grow in unity of faith through regular worship attendance, the partaking of the Sacraments, the study of God's Word, and by ministering to the spiritual needs of others; we will persevere in prayer and thanksgiving for all the opportunities and blessings which God places before us.
