Announcements

To our visitors and guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Good Shepherd in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. You may also come up to the rail and receive a baptismal blessing. Signify this by crossing your hands over your chest. If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to Pastor.

Such a small thing is the sign of the holy cross, one wonders why anyone should be so stubborn as to continue to make that sign when so many find it so offensive. So also, why should the matter of how we hold our hands when praying be something over which we have to be so unbending? Or yet again, why does a pastor continue to dress in clerical garb every day, when some find even that offensive? There are numerous matters like these which could flesh out the list, matters which appear quite unworthy of such an unyielding comportment on our part: how we vest, how we sing, the kinds of words we speak, et. Matters such as these lead the uninformed to ask why we are so stubborn, and hence lead also others to insist that we quit being so bullheaded about them. These are matters of adiaphora (unessential things), are they not? Yet these are the matters which win for some of us the charges of being unyielding, unbending, and unwilling to work with people.

Pastor: James J. Stefanic

We, the members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, believing the Bible to be God's inspired and inerrant Word, acknowledging that Jesus Christ is Lord, and affirming that we are saved by grace through faith in Him alone, offer the following as our statement of mission:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit and loving our neighbors as ourselves, we, as ambassadors for Christ, must strive to make disciples of all nations; Using the gifts the Lord has given to each of us, we must help the saints to grow in unity of faith through regular worship attendance, the partaking of the Sacraments, the study of God's Word, and by ministering to the spiritual needs of others; We will persevere in prayer and thanksgiving for all the opportunities and blessings which God places before us.
