Announcements

To our visitors and guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Good Shepherd in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. You may also come up to the rail and receive a baptismal blessing. Signify this by crossing your hands over your chest. If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to Pastor.

There is another very good reason for this inclination to retain certain practices even if some will find them offensive. David's prayers give the reason: "Zeal for Thy house hath consumed me" (Ps. 69:9); "my zeal hath consumed me" (Ps. 119:139). So also we see Jesus, who for this zeal drove the moneychangers and their oxen and sheep and doves all out of the temple, poured out their money, and overthrew their tables. "Then His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for Your house has eaten Me up"" (St. John 2:17). Now one could as well say the same of Jesus' behavior as many have said out of the behavior of certain confessing Christian pastors. Jesus did not have to pour out their money and overturn their tables. Certainly that was a matter of adiaphora. He could as well have complained to the officials, or incited the people; He could have used other means which would have imperiled His own fame far less than this. Why did He do that? The answer is zeal for God's house. This is exactly the reason we confessing pastors are counted stubborn over some of the things we do. They all pertain to worship, they all pertain to the liturgy, and most especially to the blessed Sacraments. The holy sign exalts Baptism and invites the Sacrament of the Altar. The "praying hands" (which many have as statues on their shelves but never praying in that posture, palm to palm, on the ends of their own arms¹) portray the serenity of faith staid on the one thing needful, that toward which the one praying faces, that which is upon the altar. The clerical garb calls daily attention to the office which is pre-eminently carried out in the place where such garb is especially called for. These matters are matters of faith, and of zeal. One thing is needful; hearts of faithful preachers (and people), staid on that one thing, will tend not to notice, and certainly not to heed, the gainsayers and their railing. For it is not that they have made some determination to be stubborn about unnecessary things, nor to portray some sort of criticism toward others who don't do it that way; rather, it is simply that zeal has eaten them up. They could not turn back; faith made them do it; truth made them do it; their minds and their bodies are captive to the Word of God.

We, the members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, believing the Bible to be God's inspired and inerrant Word, acknowledging that Jesus Christ is Lord, and affirming that we are saved by grace through faith in Him alone, offer the following as our statement of mission:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit and loving our neighbors as ourselves, we, as ambassadors for Christ, must strive to make disciples of all nations; Using the gifts the Lord has given to each of us, we must help the saints to grow in unity of faith through regular worship attendance, the partaking of the Sacraments, the study of God's Word, and by ministering to the spiritual needs of others; We will persevere in prayer and thanksgiving for all the opportunities and blessings which God places before us.
