To our visitors and guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Good Shepherd in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. You may also come up to the rail and receive a baptismal blessing. Signify this by crossing your hands over your chest. If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to Pastor.

According to the American pledge of allegiance, the flag stands for the republic itself. This is why it is proper for Americans to honor the flag, for the republic is due honor as a nation “under God”. All nations are “under God”, in that they only exist as nations by God’s leave, and also in that their authorities are all “ordained of God” (Rom. 13:1). In America, we accord honor to the flag not only because of this, but also because we recognize the value of America’s freedoms, which are a gift of God. Thus it is right for Christians to observe proper flag etiquette: to stand when the flag passes at a parade; to display the flag only during daylight or when lighted; to replace any torn or tattered flag; never to wear a flag as an article of clothing, etc.

A Layman’s Guide to the Liturgy, why are the flags in the auditorium, not in the church?, pg. 17, paragraph 1.

We, the members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, believing the Bible to be God’s inspired and inerrant Word, acknowledging that Jesus Christ is Lord, and affirming that we are saved by grace through faith in Him alone, offer the following as our statement of mission:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit and loving our neighbors as ourselves, we, as ambassadors for Christ, must strive to make disciples of all nations;

Using the gifts the Lord has given to each of us, we must help the saints to grow in unity of faith through regular worship attendance, the partaking of the Sacraments, the study of God’s Word, and by ministering to the spiritual needs of others; We will persevere in prayer and thanksgiving for all the opportunities and blessings which God places before us.
