Announcements

To our visitors and guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Good Shepherd in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. You may also come up to the rail and receive a baptismal blessing. Signify this by crossing your hands over your chest. If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to Pastor.

Proper flag etiquette does not establish or require the display of the flag in civilian churches. American flag etiquette requires that the American flag take symbolical precedence wherever it is displayed. On a flagpole, it must fly higher than any other flag: on a stage, it must stand at the stage's right hand, the position of honor, called "the flag's own right." So it is arguable that in a church's worship space, where the flag's symbolism cannot take precedence over the displayed signs and symbols of the faith (crosses, statues, etc.), it would be better not to display it at all. (Military settings where chaplains serve might legitimately be seen as an exception to this rule, inasmuch as they are themselves government institutions, and the display of the flag in such a context might well be understood as a necessary designation of the government they represent.)

A Layman's Guide to the Liturgy, why are the flags in the auditorium, not in the church?, pg. 18, paragraph 3.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Spiritual Discipline for August: Read one Old Testament and one New Testament chapter every day.

Pastor Stefanic will be on vacation this week.

Join us on Monday, August 29 as we commemorate the martyrdom of St. John, the Baptist. A potluck will begin at 6 and Evening Prayer will start at 7.

Do you like to share your knowledge, talents, gifts, and knowledge with others? If you answered yes, please consider teaching Sunday School. The Sunday School is looking for a couple teachers for the 2022-2023 year! We have a few grades who need teachers. If you are interested in teaching the young minds of our congregation, please contact Katie Brockberg.

The Sunday School needs a few supplies for the year, we are in need of: scotch tape, kid's size scissors, glitter, bottles of glue and glue sticks, Kleenex, and disinfecting wipes. If you are able to donate an item or two, the Sunday School would greatly appreciate the items. You can give the supplies to Katie Brockberg or bring them to the 4-way Sunday school room.

National LWML Grant – The Littlest and Least of These, St. Paul Lutheran Church and Christian Academy — $42,000...The grant for The Littlest and Least of These calls for the renovation of the 65-year-old fellowship hall of St. Paul Lutheran Church into space for the St. Paul Christian Academy. It will allow the congregation to serve more children and to add on-site and online classes for young adults and parents in academic subjects, health, and fitness, as well as Bible studies and classes for new Christians. Rev. Dr. Roosevelt Gray, Director of Black and African Missions, LCMS, commented: "Years of prayerful planning and faithful preaching led the congregation to establish St. Paul Christian Academy, the only Lutheran Christian Academy serving this historic Oak Cliff community and the lone African American congregation in the Texas District with a Lutheran Christian Academy." For more information, go to lwml.org/2021-2023-mission-grant-15. Donate to this grant by putting your offering in the LWML Mite box in the Narthex.

Greeters Needed - We're looking for families, couples, teenagers, kids and parents, grandmas and grandpas – We need YOU! We want you to be that "warm smile" that welcomes everyone into the House of the Lord! Offer them a handshake if they want one, or fist/elbow bump, or even a hug for those that want it. If this is something you'd like to do...please contact Linda Erickson or Gerri in the office. They'll get you signed up.

Ushers Needed - looking for ushers to do 2 weeks at a time, please contact Kerry Kerr.

New Reading Materials – New Devotionals.

LUTHER HAD WARTBURG, WE HAVE COLLINSVILLE...Issues, Etc. is a radio talk show and podcast produced by Lutheran Public Radio in Collinsville, IL and hosted by LCMS Pastor Todd Wilken. Pastor: James J. Stefanic

We, the members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, believing the Bible to be God's inspired and inerrant Word, acknowledging that Jesus Christ is Lord, and affirming that we are saved by Grace through faith in Him alone, offer the following as our statement of mission:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit and loving our neighbors as ourselves, we, as ambassadors for Christ, must strive to make disciples of all nations; Using the gifts the Lord has given to each of us, we must help the saints to grow in unity of faith through regular worship attendance, the partaking of the Sacraments, the study of God's Word, and by ministering to the spiritual needs of others; we will persevere in prayer and thanksgiving for all the opportunities and blessings which God places before us.
