Announcements

To our visitors and guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Good Shepherd in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. You may also come up to the rail and receive a baptismal blessing. Signify this by crossing your hands over your chest. If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to Pastor.

Therefore it is fitting that the Church employ violet in her seasons of penitence, for our recollection of the scorn heaped upon our Lord must produce contrite hearts. The color of violet therefore serves to symbolize both the true royalty of Christ (the Anointed, cf. Ps. 2) and His humiliation, which ought to humble us all in due preparation to receive Him. Violet is a penitential color, not a festive color. Its rich hue designates somber penitence and prayer.

Layman's Guide to the Liturgy. Why is violet the color of Advent and Lent? pg. 19, paragraph 2.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Flowers this day are in given to the Glory of God by Keith and Gay Brockberg in honor of the Baptism of their granddaughter, Harper Thiesen.

Spiritual Discipline for September: Reduce media consumption to free time for reading of the Scriptures.

Sunday School starts today! A Rally Day party will follow.

Bible Study begins a new study today as we take up the book of Acts.

If you are interested in making baptismal banners, please contact Gwen Sturrock.

LWML will have a Salad Supper on Wednesday Sept 14 at 6 p.m. Brenda Evans will do a presentation on her trip to Italy, Austria & Germany with Pastor Bryan Wolfmueller's group. All women of the congregation are welcome to join us. Please bring a salad and come hear about Brenda's trip where they saw where St Paul traveled in Italy, where Luther went on a pilgrimage and saw the passion play in Oberammergau.

Ushers Needed - Couples, families, youths, confirmation students and older are welcome to usher. Please contact Kerry Kerr.

Do you like to share your knowledge, talents, gifts, and knowledge with others? If you answered yes, please consider teaching Sunday School. The Sunday School is looking for a couple teachers for the 2022-2023 year! If interested, please contact Katie Brockberg.

Please support Travis Loeslie and his family as they search for a new home. Travis served as a pastor in our district until a disease forced him into resigning from the Office of the Holy Ministry. An insert with information on how you can help can be found on the resource table.

To learn more about Lutherans in Ukraine and how you might support them in this time, please visit www.lcms.org/ukraine. You may also submit a check to GSLC for "Ukraine Relief."

Greeters Needed - We're looking for families, couples, teenagers, kids and parents, grandmas and grandpas – We need YOU! If this is something you'd like to do...please contact Linda Erickson or Gerri in the office. They'll get you signed up.

UNANSWERED BIBLE QUESTIONS... Pastor: James J. Stefanie

We, the members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, believing the Bible to be God's inspired and inerrant Word, acknowledging that Jesus Christ is Lord, and affirming that we are saved by Grace through faith in Him alone, offer the following as our statement of mission:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit and loving our neighbors as ourselves, we, as ambassadors for Christ, must strive to make disciples of all nations; Using the gifts the Lord has given to each of us, we must help the saints to grow in unity of faith through regular worship attendance, the partaking of the Sacraments, the study of God's Word, and by ministering to the spiritual needs of others; we will persevere in prayer and thanksgiving for all the opportunities and blessings which God places before us.
