Announcements

To our visitors and guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Good Shepherd in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. You may also come up to the rail and receive a baptismal blessing. Signify this by crossing your hands over your chest. If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to Pastor.

A time-honored custom of the Christian Church is to instruct the congregation at worship to bow their heads every time the name of Jesus is uttered during the Mass. A congregation well trained in this practice will be alert to listen for it especially during the Readings or Sermon, during which it is more difficult to expect the times when Jesus' name will be heard. The custom therefore provides a means of helping the congregation learn to pay attention to the words they hear. More than this, however, it is an expression of faith, which knows that the holy name of Jesus is the most blessed utterance in all creation, being the name of Him who has redeemed us from sin, death, and everlasting condemnation, and has brought us to Himself by His blood, Thus we revere and adore Him in this simple way – simple, as it is less liturgically profound than genuflexion – every time we hear His name, in accordance with the words of St. Paul, “at the name of Jesus every knee should bow” (Phil. 2:10).

Pastor: James J. Stefanie

We, the members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, believing the Bible to be God's inspired and inerrant Word, acknowledging that Jesus Christ is Lord, and affirming that we are saved by Grace through faith in Him alone, offer the following as our statement of mission:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit and loving our neighbors as ourselves, we, as ambassadors for Christ, must strive to make disciples of all nations; Using the gifts the Lord has given to each of us, we must help the saints to grow in unity of faith through regular worship attendance, the partaking of the Sacraments, the study of God's Word, and by ministering to the spiritual needs of others; we will persevere in prayer and thanksgiving for all the opportunities and blessings which God places before us.
