Dear friend:

Looking for an affordable way to promote your business? Please consider sponsoring one of the largest and fastest growing cultural arts events in Central Virginia – the 11th annual Richmond Jewish Food Festival.

Food and fun return on January 14–15 to the centrally located Weinstein Jewish Community Center. Congregation Keneseth Beth Israel is honored to once again host this celebration of ethnic cuisine. In addition to a delicious meal, the festivities include a raffle, vendor tables, live music, and a marketplace.

Marketing your company is made easy by selecting one of six sponsorship categories starting as low as $180. Benefits range from inclusion in radio ads and social media to venue signage. The full list of benefits is too long to list here. Feel free to contact us for a detailed explanation with pricing options.

In addition to our generous sponsors, the greater Richmond area benefits from the event. A portion of sales support our Boy/Girl Scout troops as well as various communal education programs, and at the conclusion of the festival, a local pantry receives a food donation.

With gratitude to our sponsors and tireless volunteers, we expect this year to be the best yet.

We look forward to serving you soon.
