

Listing of Pro bono & Voluntary Coaching Psychology Activities

The Society is pleased to launch our new initiative to list information about MISCP, MISCPAccred and AFISCP members of the ISCP offering pro bono and voluntary coaching psychology services. As part of our ongoing commitment to social improvement, we wish to promote and share information about the work of our members in areas such as the charitable, not-for-profit, voluntary and community coaching psychology services¹.

¹ . A pre-requisite is that this work is undertaken without payment.

Name, E-mail Address	Country of Activity	Pro Bono/Voluntary Coaching Psychology Activities
Sam Farmer, AFISCP sam@enhanceltd.co.nz	New Zealand	In 2009, Sam co-founded and was the first Chair of the Coaching Psychology Special Interest Group in New Zealand. Since that time, he has presented at conferences and continues to write articles on topics relating to Coaching Psychology. In 2017, Sam started mentoring. As well as enjoying the reciprocal learning often found in mentoring relationships, he aims to broaden his Mentees' networks, opportunities and confidence in the professional application of Coaching Psychology.
Dr. H.R.S.Keerthisinghe, MISCP hrrs.keerthisinghe@gmail.com	Sri Lanka	I am the Founder of Relief Home meant for the benefit of physically and mentally disabled individuals running with my own efforts since 1994 in Sri Lanka. Founder Institute of Psychology, Counselling, Psychotherapy & Allied Professions (Incorporated by a Parliament Act) to disseminate psychological education, counselling, and research since 2007 in Sri Lanka. Lecturer Sri Jayawardenepura University, and ex-lecturer University of Kelaniya, PGIM, and KDU Sri Lanka
Christin Tan, MISCP christin@coachingandmentoring.asia	Singapore	Christin is serving as Chair of the Singapore Psychological Society (SPS) Coaching Psychology Special Interest Group (SIG). The SIG welcomes all professionals, practitioners, Society members, and anyone who might be interested to apply psychological approaches within their coaching practice. There are no dues beyond being a member of the SPS. We hope to support members in their professional development, and facilitate the deepening of networks in focused areas of coaching psychological practice in Singapore and Asia.