*As for me and my house,
we will serve the LORD.*
Joshua 24:15b

Hi Saints,

I absolutely LOVE being a hero.... but..... occasionally I'm the one that needs to be rescued.

We have about $5,000 in out of pocket expenses for Lynn's hip replacement. Even if we drain our staff account down to ZERO we will still need to go into debt to pay the bills. Will you be our hero?!

Please pray and ask the Lord what He would have you do? You can send a check made out to CRU to our address at:

Larry and Lynn Lindahl
22916 Roland Cut-off Road
Roland, AR 72135

Or to CRU at:

PO Box 628222
Orlando, FL 32862-8222
(Please write our account number on the check; #0476210)

Or donate through our donation portal at:

Through you the Lord has been so faithful to us and He will get us through this as well.

Thank you for your help!!

Please pray for us...

- Lynn's mom passed out and fell on July 8th. Lynn's mom is primary caregiver for her dad who has dementia, so Lynn drove the next day to Wisconsin to care for them. Her mom fractured her pelvis and has a compression fracture of her spine. It's been a long journey and Lynn will have been there for over five weeks. Pray for healing for her mom and peace for all of us. Long-distance with elderly parents is very hard!
- Pray for God's faithful financial provision.
- Pray that we will represent Jesus in every word and action we do.

FAMILY

When you live in Arkansas and family members are far away, you take advantage of opportunities to see them.

We had planned to get together to celebrate Larry's dad's birthday. It was a "Pie" celebration as we enjoyed lots of pizza and delicious pies for dessert!

My sister from Maryland surprised us! Circumstances aligned so that she could visit for a little more than a day. My brother came from Minneapolis and we had a great evening and breakfast together as the original five Barbergs! There was much laughter and good sharing of memories.

This summer has been a vivid reminder to me to treasure each day. You don't know what tomorrow may bring.

The Lindahl Family

August 4th we all gathered as Larry's family and celebrated his dad's birthday. It was really good to all be together!
