*As for me and my house,
we will serve the LORD.*
Joshua 24:15b

Would you say you're an introvert?

One of my many responsibilities here at the Welcome Desk at FamilyLife is to monitor our Facebook page. I "like" and comment on various posts and often, am very blessed by what people say.

This person sounds like they were hesitant to attend, but he did and now can't wait to go again. I've erased his name but see if you might be using this excuse and missing out.

If you're a financial partner, I can send you a certificate for a huge discount. Let me know. I think you will be glad you did.

CHANGE IS IN THE AIR!

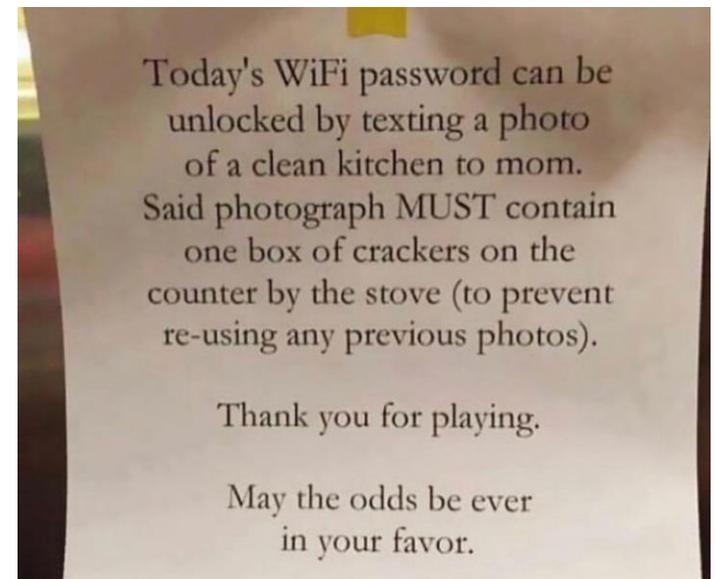

After 5-years serving at the Welcome Desk, I (Lynn) am transferring to a new position. I'm pretty excited! I will be joining the Donor Team but serving in the President's Office. I will be serving David Robbins and his relationships with the donors on his caseload. He wants to get to know them better so he can "surprise and delight" them!

It's a new position here at FamilyLife but someone has been doing it for the president of Cru so there is groundwork to get me started.

I will start March 4th so next month I will have more details for you. It will be a new challenge that I have not done before, but I think it will be a good fit.

Larry will continue to help in IT. Currently he comes to the office in the morning and is home with Naomi in the afternoon.

Here's some parenting advice I wish I would have had years ago!

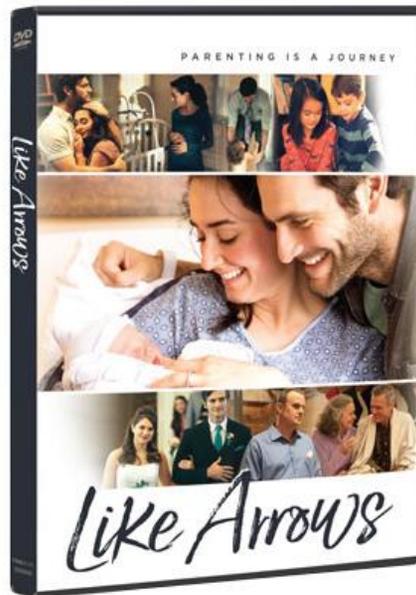

Please pray for us...

- The mystery of my penguin-wobbling has been solved. I'm in need of hip replacement. I'm still waiting for surgery to be scheduled. In the meantime, I have a new friend, Sir Wayne, the cane!
- FamilyLife Today, our radio ministry is announcing a major transition. Dennis & Barbara Rainey will step back as the hosts and Dave & Ann Wilson will join Bob Lepine. Pray for continued ministry and growth.
- Naomi continues to be an interesting blend of a teenager and a toddler. Pray for wisdom to parent her in a way that prepares her to walk God's plan.
- Pray for Matt and Stephanie, attending their first Weekend to Remember. Pray that God will show them much and change their family forever!

2019 Rep Con

In January, all our ministry representatives gathered from across the country for training and team-building. At the conclusion, they met for a photo. I tried to stay out of it, but they still got me in the corner! This is a great group of people who are on the front lines of ministry.

God-sightings...

Another one of my responsibilities is to monitor the live chat on our Weekend to Remember web page. Honestly, I'm not very good at it. I really can't help much beyond pointing the visitors to the website and call center, but God showed up the other day.

A chat visitor explained that he had purchased a Weekend-to-Remember reservation for his son and daughter-in-law but they did not want to go. I explained that he could transfer the reservation to a later date or get a refund minus a fee. He was not sure what to do. Then I remembered that a pastor friend had just asked if we had any discounted certificates to send his son and daughter-in-law to a Weekend-to-Remember. So I asked the chat visitor if he'd like to donate to them. And he said, "Yes!" He was delighted to do it!

God shows up in the midst of a live chat. Hmm... Now that's a good use of today's technology!

Gratefully day by day,
Larry and Lynn
