*As for me and my house,
we will serve the LORD.*
Joshua 24:15b

More and more kids are growing up without faith central to their home. Parents are the number one influence on their children in every area of their life, including faith.

For many busy parents, it is common to treat raising children and practicing their own faith as two separate parts of life, yet they can be beautifully intertwined.

We believe there are simple, effective ways for parents to live out their faith in everyday moments with their kids, and the best way to learn is from other parents who have applied biblical truth to the joys and challenges of parenting.

FamilyLife's Art of Parenting does just that. It gives parents a simple vision and creative ways to apply their faith with their children.

Through videos, workbook, and online content, parents will hear from other experienced parents in their own words — their stories, challenges, and ideas. It is parents helping parents make the Gospel the core of their parenting.

Please pray for us...

Our next Pastor's Lunch Date is Thursday, June 21st. Please pray that local pastor couples will join us. Our theme this time is to have fun! We will have videos while we eat, we're planning to play the Not-So-Newlywed game, have a photo opportunity, and more. Our goal is for them to laugh! Pray they will feel appreciated.

Our Medicaid Appeal hearing is scheduled for Thursday, May 24 at 9AM. Pray for favor and accuracy in the hearing and that they will come to a quick decision that will cover Naomi's facility's fees retroactively to when they stopped.

As I sit here at the Welcome Desk, the future of this space beside it greatly impacts my ministry opportunities. Pray that God's perfect, planned use of this space is agreed on by management.

The last time we visited Naomi, we made this poster with her. We had her sit with a light on her and traced her silhouette.

Next we went through identity verses and wrote those on the inside because that is the truth of who she is.

Then we asked her to share the words she heard that described herself. It was fascinating to watch her realize that those words were not the truth of who she was.

This would be a good exercise for all of us to do! It's very easy to go with the lies and stray from the truth of who God says we are.

Dear Friends,
Life continues to be an adventure! Larry and I celebrated our 34th wedding anniversary on May 5th and never would we have imagined the journey the Lord had prepared for us. The cool part is that it is the journey the Lord has prepared for us and there is no place we would rather be. Have you had those moments when you realize you are joining a plan? I have planters outside the front door that I'm supposed to take care of. I'm not much of a gardener nor do I enjoy it. I now have a volunteer on Wednesdays who is a Master Gardener! God provides.

As always, we are so grateful for you, our partners in ministry.

For godly homes,

Larry and Lynn
