

I ♥ Libertarians!

Like conservatives, Libertarians like free markets. Like liberals, they support civil freedoms. And in addition they're always interested in alternatives to bigger government. Are you?...

- Libertarianism is a worldwide movement in over 100 countries where people support a philosophy of individual rights, and in politics replacing government action with a range of voluntary alternatives...
- Libertarians have played key roles in making Florida better for jobs and small business through successful initiatives against the $ 6 Billion service tax proposal, reducing the intangibles tax on senior's capital, and defending the Homestead Exemption...
- Libertarians are a main resource for education on our Bill of Rights and personal freedoms, such as Revision 11, the Ballot Choice Amendment approved by 2/3rds of the voters, support of the right to home-schools, and outreach to community leaders like you...
- In 2002, 14% of Floridians--430,000--voted Libertarian in State House races where they ran--running more candidates than Democrats. Three Libertarians serve in local Pinellas government, and Libertarians first called for choice-building privatization in the Bay area...
- Dan Fylstra (inventor of the spreadsheet), actor Kurt Russell, author Dean Koontz, singers like Melanie and many other figures encourage Libertarian ideas...
- That worldwide, Libertarians have led the fight against dictatorship: Including advisors to Mikhail Gorbachev, the former Prime Ministers of Mongolia and Czechoslovakia, and 10% of the Costa Rica Legislature are all Libertarian...

What the Florida Press says...

"Libertarians...make an impact."—USA Today... "We need more of these citizen-candidates!"--Herald Tribune... "They are doing what political parties are supposed to do"—Times Union... "I admire what Libertarians have done and brought to the race" --Dennis Baxley (R), House District 24, in Ocala Star Banner ... "Public bodies notice a change when Libertarians are elected..."--Saint Petersburg Times... "98% of votes for Libertarians come from Republicans, Democrats and Independents who want a choice"--WTAN
