

Membertou Recycling for Future Generations

ATTENTION: Membertou Residents

RE: Membertou Solid Waste Management Program

In Membertou, there are a lot of households that are NOT separating their garbage properly. As a community, we share that responsibility and didn't keep up with the explosion of new homes being built. We failed to educate a large portion of our community about the importance of recycling and organics. Membertou has not provided the proper information on how to separate and recycle solid waste and garbage.

In the near future, Membertou hopes to distribute a starter kit which will include one small outdoor organic green bin, one small organics bin, a separation guide magnet, written separation material, and recycling/organic bags. This starter kit will soon be placed in all of our community's new homes. Information kits will also be distributed to our residents that reside in apartments. When community members buy or receive a new home, the transition will be easier.

Membertou Waste Management is asking community members to please start recycling and start separating their organics from their regular garbage. A separation guide will be featured in the Aknutmaq newsletter.

Thank you in advance,

Adrian Paul, Membertou Solid Waste Management

Youth Chief and Council 2018-19

Emily Bernard, the daughter of Shawn Bernard and Allison Smith, was elected as Membertou's Youth Chief for the upcoming 2018-19 term on Monday, October 29th 2018.

Five youth from the community wished to hold their positions from the previous year in the Membertou Youth Council; Reannah LaPorte, Noah Matthews-Cremo, Eliah Marshall, Jayden Paul and Gaby Doucette.

On November 7th, students who attend both Sydney Academy and Riverview High School voted for the remaining seven youth council positions.

We would like to welcome our newly elected Youth Council members; Jaiden Karaoke, Dante Paul, Kaleigh Paul Kyra Rose and Nevan Paul.

The Membertou Youth Chief and Council have one thing in common – they are determined to be the representatives for the youth within our community and want to make a positive impact.

As Membertou Youth Chief and Council, it is their responsibility to address issues and concerns that affect today's youth. They will also host events throughout their term to provide others an opportunity to participate in positive activities.

Congratulations to our 2018-19 Youth Chief and Council. We're looking forward to a wonderful and successful year!
