Members/Drivers/Officials

All drivers, car owners, pit crew and officials will conduct themselves in a professional and sportsmanlike manner at all times.

When on track the chief stewards' word is absolute and must be obeyed at all times.

Remember we are a form of entertainment as much as a sporting group. Please ensure that we give value to our spectators at every opportunity.

When something happens you are not happy with, before taking any action, try to practice the following:

Sit down, cool down before making your objection known, take time to think through the situation. This is particularly important when in the presence of the public.
