

PROJECTS & REVIEWS

<http://www.sapphireeyesproductions.com/projectreviews.htm>

<http://www.sapphireeyesproductions.com/projects.htm>

“This was wonderful and so necessary to see young children involved; very caring and passionate about such an important health and environmental issue which should concern us all. Loss of habitat, massive and widespread chemical pollution (as well as introduced species such as cane toads) are a grave threat to mankind and all species. Thank you to all those involved with the children for this most important work.”

– Diane Drayton Buckland, Brisbane

(Received: 13 Dec. 2011)