

No Interruptions During Class

There will be no interruptions during session times. Please hold all of your questions and comments until the Oral Presentation/Dars is over. In addition to this please do not post any emoticons, signs, links from other sources unless approved by the room attendant, instructor, or administration.