
Keeping Your Promises

Policy # 14001.6

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim

Assalaamu Alaikum wa Rahmatullahi wa Barakaatuh

The following document is an agreement/trust between THM Sadaqa Group and _____ for the volunteer services of _____.

Proposed Volunteer Assignment

_____ Regular Volunteer
_____ PT Volunteer/Semester

Thank you for offering to serve as a Volunteer at THM Sadaqa Group for the homeschool programs or adult participation courses. The purpose of this Agreement is to establish expectations for Volunteers, which will help ensure that effective learning and teaching take place in a safe, secure and welcoming environment.

A Volunteer is a person who works on an occasional or regular basis at THM Sadaqa Group sites or other educational facilities online to support the efforts of the administrative staff.

As a Volunteer for THM Sadaqa Group, I understand and agree to implement the following statement:

That you will not promise any student, parent, or participant of THM Sadaqa Group anything that you do not have the capability to fulfill.

From the characteristics of the khadhaab (a liar) is that: “when they promise something, they break their promises.” This is from the signs of hypocrisy.

Allah ta`ala says what is intended to mean in the English language:

“Verily! Allah commands that you should render back the trusts to those, to whom they are due; and that when you judge between men, you judge with justice. Verily, how excellent is the teaching which He (Allah) gives you! Truly, Allah is Ever All-Hearer, All-Seer.” 4:58

Tafsir for the ayaat from Ibn Kathir: Allah commands that the trusts be returned to their rightful owners. Al-Hasan narrated that Samurah said that the Messenger of Allah said,

“(Return the trust to those who entrusted you, and do not betray those who betrayed you.) Imam Ahmad and the collectors of Sunan recorded this Hadith. This command refers to all things that one is expected to look after, such as Allah's rights on His servants: praying, Zakah, fasting, penalties for sins, vows and so forth. The command also includes the rights of the servants on each other, such as what they entrust each other with, including the cases that are not recorded or documented. Allah commands
