Chapter 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 1-5. Amendments to Code; effect of new ordinances; amendatory language.

- (a) All ordinances passed subsequent to the adoption of this Code which amend, repeal or in any way affect this Code may be numbered in accordance with the numbering system of this Code and printed for inclusion in this Code. In the case of repealed chapters, sections or subsections or any part thereof by subsequent ordinances, such repealed portions may be excluded from the Code by the omission thereof from reprinted pages affected thereby. The subsequent ordinances as numbered and printed or as omitted, in the case of repeal, shall be prima facie evidence of such subsequent ordinances until such time that this Code and subsequent ordinances numbered or omitted are readopted as a new code of ordinances by the village board.
- (b) Amendments to any of the provisions of this Code shall be made by amending such provisions by specific reference to the section number of this Code in the following language: "Section _____ of the Malta Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:...." The new provisions shall then be set out in full.
- (c) If a new section not then existing in the Code is to be added, the following language shall be used: "The Malta Municipal Code is hereby amended by adding a section (or article or chapter) to be numbered _____, which section (or article or chapter) reads as follows:...." The provisions shall then be set out in full.
- (d) All sections, articles, chapters or provisions of this Code desired to be repealed must be specifically repealed by section, article or chapter number, as the case may be.
- (e) Two official copies of this Code shall be maintained so that all amendments thereto and all general ordinances thereafter passed may be posted and inserted in their proper places within the Code. One of the copies shall be maintained by the village clerk and the other by the village attorney. In case of any doubt as to whether a new ordinance is a general ordinance, the village clerk shall be guided by the advice of the village attorney.

Sec. 1-6. Effect of repeal of ordinances.

When any ordinance repealing a former ordinance, clause or provision shall be itself repealed, such repeal shall not be construed to revive such former ordinance, clause or provision unless it shall be therein so expressly provided.

Sec. 1-7. Jurisdiction.

Unless otherwise provided in this Code, this Code applies to acts performed within the corporate limits of the village. Provisions of this Code also apply to acts performed outside the corporate limits and up to the limits prescribed by law where the law confers power on the village to regulate such particular acts outside the corporate limits.

Sec. 1-8. Severability of parts of Code.

Should any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word of this Code be declared invalid or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any of the remaining words, phrases, clauses, sentences, paragraphs or sections of this Code, since the same would have been enacted by the village board without the incorporation in this Code of any such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph or section.

Chapter 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 1-9. Unauthorized alteration or tampering with Code.

It shall be unlawful for any person in the village to change or amend, by additions or deletions, any part or portions of this Code, or to insert or delete pages, or portions thereof, or to alter or tamper with such Code in any manner whatsoever which will cause the law of the village to be misrepresented thereby.

Sec. 1-10. General penalty for violation of Code; continuing violations; judicial enforcement of Code upon conviction.

Whenever in this Code or in any ordinance of the village any act is prohibited or is made or declared to be unlawful or an offense, or whenever in such Code or ordinance the doing of any act is required or the failure to do any act is declared to be unlawful, where no specific penalty is provided therefor, the violation of any such provision of this Code or any ordinance shall be a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine not exceeding $750.00. Each day any violation of any provision of this Code or of any ordinance shall continue shall constitute a separate offense.

State Law reference— Authority to provide that ordinance violations constitute misdemeanors and to provide for penalties, 65 ILCS 5/1-2-1, 5/1-2-1.1.

Sec. 1-11. Responsibility for acts.

Every person concerned in the commission of an act prohibited by this Code, whether he directly commits the act, or prosecutes, counsels, aids or abets in its commission, may be prosecuted and on conviction is punishable as if he had directly committed such act.

Sec. 1-12. Officers, employees not liable to fine for failure to perform duties.

No provision of this Code designating the duties of any officer or employee shall be so construed as to make such officer or employee liable for any fine or penalty provided in this Code for a failure to perform such duty, unless the intention of the village board to impose such a fine or penalty on such officer or employee is specifically and clearly expressed in the section creating the duty.

Sec. 1-13. Acts punishable under different sections.

In all cases where the same offense is made punishable or is created by different clauses or sections of this Code, the prosecuting officer may elect under which to proceed; but not more than one recovery shall be had against the same person for the same offense, provided that the revocation of a license or permit shall not be considered a recovery or penalty so as to bar any other penalty being enforced.

Sec. 1-14. References and notes.

Cross references, state law references, editor's notes and history notes are by way of explanation only and shall not be deemed a part of the text of any section.

Sec. 1-15. Supplementation of Code.

- (a) By contract or by village personnel, supplements to this Code shall be prepared and printed whenever authorized or directed by the village board. A supplement to the Code shall include all substantive parts of permanent and general ordinances passed by the village board during the period covered by the supplement and all changes made thereby in the Code. The pages of a supplement shall be so numbered that they will fit properly into the Code and will, where necessary, replace pages that have become obsolete or partially obsolete, and the new pages shall be so prepared that, when they have been inserted, the Code will be current through the date of the adoption of the latest ordinance included in the supplement.

- (b) In preparing a supplement to this Code, all portions of the Code which have been repealed shall be excluded from the Code by the omission thereof from reprinted pages.
- (c) When preparing a supplement to this Code, the codifier (meaning the person, agency or organization authorized to prepare the supplement) may make formal, nonsubstantive changes in ordinances and parts of ordinances included in the supplement, insofar as it is necessary to do so to embody them into a unified code. For example, the codifier may:
 - (1) Organize the ordinance material into appropriate units, such as chapters, articles, divisions, subdivisions or sections.
 - (2) Provide appropriate catchlines, headings and titles for sections and other units of the Code printed in the supplement, and make changes in such catchlines, headings and titles.
 - (3) Assign appropriate numbers to sections and other units to be inserted in the Code and, where necessary to accommodate new material, change existing section or other unit numbers.
 - (4) Change the terms "this ordinance" or words of the same meaning to "this chapter," "this article," "this division," etc., as the case may be, or to "sections _____ to _____" (inserting section numbers to indicate the sections of the Code which embody the substantive sections of the ordinance incorporated into the Code).
 - (5) Make other nonsubstantive changes necessary to preserve the original meaning of ordinance sections or the alphabetical arrangement of new chapters inserted into the Code. In no case shall the codifier make any change in the meaning or effect of ordinance material included in the supplement or already embodied in the Code.

Sec. 1-16. Ordinances not affected by adoption of Code.

- (a) The repeal provided for in the ordinance adopting this Code shall not affect any of the following:
 - (1) Any offense or act committed or done or any penalty or forfeiture incurred or any contract or right established or accruing before the effective date of such Code. If any penalty, forfeiture or punishment is mitigated by any provision of a new ordinance, such provision may be, by the consent of the party affected, applied to any judgment announced after the new ordinance takes effect.
 - (2) Any ordinance or resolution promising or guaranteeing the payment of money for the village, or authorizing the issuance of any bonds of the village or any evidence of the village's indebtedness, or any contract or obligation assumed by the village.
 - (3) Any right or franchise granted by any ordinance of the village.
 - (4) Any ordinance establishing, dedicating, accepting the dedication of, naming, grading, improving, altering, locating, opening, paving, widening, vacating, etc., any street, alley, sidewalk, public way, public park or public grounds in the village.
 - (5) Any appropriation ordinance.
