JUNE 2018

Commander's Message

We all look forward to June, perhaps the most beautiful time of all. Winter coats put away, long evenings on the deck or patio and the grill is once more the kitchen of choice. Among all the activities with the kids out of schools and family vacations it is busy in a different way.

This special month does hold a near forgotten holiday, June 14, Flag day, the day our forefathers designated the stars and stripes as our national symbol. As veterans we hold this symbol in a special place, we salute it, we have served it, we have seen our comrades covered with it. Yet it seems taken for granted these days. On June 14th, Donnie will have the Color Guard out to perform the ceremonial burning of old tattered flags, where we honor our countries symbol. The public is welcome and I would like to see some real attendance at this meaningful ceremony.

Meantime in May, Scholarships to Colleges and Technical Schools are being awarded to students by the Legion and Auxiliary. We had a bumper crop for Boys and Girls State from the Legion, Auxiliary, Sons and the Riders. The Riders will be at HyVee in Osage Beach 5/25/18 till 400 PM fundraising and greeting the public.

We will have a nice program for Memorial Day, starting with the breakfast at 730 AM hosted by our Ladies Auxiliary. Starting at 1100 AM the Color Guard, First Responders, presentation of colors and our speaker LTC James Rictor. Should be nice as usual.

On a personal note, Ken Bishop, has resigned as Finance Officer, handing the reins to Bob Behm. He is leaving the area but maintaining his membership and will continue his service to the VA Hospital bringing the Bingo games to the patients there. This is the kind of service and dedication that makes his loss so great. Everyone who has had the pleasure of working with Ken knows what I mean.

God Bless America

Mark

MESSAGE FROM THE AUXILIARY PRESIDENT

The Birthday dinner and awards night was well attended. If you didn't attend you missed out on a delicious dinner

June 3rd the Eighth District meeting will be held at our Post. The Memorial and Post Everlasting will be at 11 :00 a.m. Lunch at 12:00 noon and our meeting will be at 1 :00 p.m. Come out and support our Post.

The nominating committee has presented their slate of candidates for officers for the coming year.

The scholarship committee has selected their recipients. They will be introduced at our June meeting. Come out and meet them.

June 20th our Auxiliary ladies will be host to the Newcomers Club. A lunch will be prepared and served at noon. My thanks to all who volunteered their time and help for this occasion.

Remember the kitchen is open on Wednesday and Friday nights. These ladies and men volunteer their time. Come out and support them. Food is available now on Thursday night along with our new game, "Show Me The Money". It's a lot of fun. Come out and join in and support the Legion and the Auxiliary.

June 14 is Flag Day. Fly your Flag proudly! ! !

Auxiliary President, Genny Rieckhoff

Date To Remember:

SAL

Gee such a well thought out meal, then the unforeseen fall and Jack while on crutches proceeds as Supervisor. Determination and lots of great carry on attitude; I even worked in the kitchen again while my wife did nothing but offer assistance. No not complaining, Bill & Wendy are back along with Tom H Jim M so actually getting to work was a treat for me.

Hope Jack does well with his ankle surgery as well as wishing Jim Morton a speedy recover from his open-heart surgery. Wedding bells for Larry & Dee add to the activities of the SAL. Guess they wanted to get away from the legion shenanigans at least for while Never too late to chi vary newlyweds ha ha We all wish them a safe and happy trip, without most of us pestering them

Unless I can get someone to step up and fill a position our officers will remain the same, we could sure use some new blood and ideas; so, even if you don't want an office come to our next brief meeting on Wed, June 6th @ 6 and let our friendly team meet U and put a face with the name. Our meeting is the same as chicken wing night so U could also enjoy favorite legion meal.

Menu for SAL 6-13 is tenderloin sandwiches or fish, slaw home fried chips, and an array of desserts.

SAL MEETING IN JULY will move to THURSDAY JULY 11th

Bob Worthley

A NOTE FROM THE COLOR GUARD CAPTAIN

On Thursday, June 28th, we will be doing our annual "Fish Fry" at Warrensburg Veterans Home. As in the past years we will be needing donations of Catfish and Crappie fillets for this very worthwhile event. Any donations of fish will be greatly appreciated.

The Veterans look forward to this every year.

We will be leaving for Warrensburg about 8:30 a.m. the morning of 6-28-18.

Thanks for any help or donations.
